

Experience the magic of Historic Downtown Muskegon this holiday season. Featuring the oldest, and "newest", homes to the neighborhood, dressed in their holiday finery. Take a step into the past, and the future, of downtown Muskegon.

Saturday December 5, 2009 Noon—Five p.m.

Tickets are $10 per person, age 12 and under free.

Purchase tickets in advance at (tickets also available on the day of at the Union Depot)

The Frauenthal Center Box Office, Pitkin's Drug, Keefe's Pharmacy, The Coffee House

Begins at the Union Depot (610 W. Western Ave) and is self directed by car. A map & historic information will be provided. Refreshments will be provided at some of the tour stops.

Houses included on the tour include

MacAllister home, 297 Clay, Mudgett home, Langeland House, Bright Mansion, Muskegon Heritage Museum, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Union Depot plus plenty of side stops

Information and representatives from new downtown Muskegon condo projects also to be on hand.

For complete details visit www.downtownmuskegon.org

Media Sponsor

Printing Sponsor

Living Sponsors

benefiting the Nelson Neighborhood
Improvement Association

